Purpose of Questions

The following questions address mental health and chemical dependency matters. The Board asks these questions because of its responsibility to protect the public by determining the current fitness of an applicant to practice law. The Board regularly recommends licensing of applicants who have sought treatment for mental health and chemical dependency issues. The Board strongly encourages applicants who have mental health and chemical dependency issues to seek treatment. The Board views mental health and chemical dependency treatment as a positive factor in evaluating an application.

In answering the questions below you need not report situational counseling such as stress, victim, or grief counseling.

Applicant's Burden

You bear the burden of demonstrating that you possess the qualifications necessary to practice law. Your response to a question may include information as to why, in your opinion or that of your treatment provider, your condition will not affect your ability to practice law in a competent and professional manner. Please refer to Rule 5A and Rule 5B\(4\) for additional information.

Conditional Admission

Under Rule 16, the Board may conditionally admit an applicant whose record raises serious questions about character and fitness but who presently appears to have a commitment to rehabilitation and the ability to meet the Board's Essential Eligibility Requirements for the practice of law found in Rule 5A.

Confidentiality

Information disclosed on the bar application is confidential under Rule 14, subject to certain exceptions. The Board will not release your confidential application information to current or prospective employers without your written authorization.
