Other Prior Bar Applications

List all applications or registrations submitted to the bar of another jurisdiction, including for any bar exam, any application for admission, and for any limited or other type of law license. List all bar exams, including if you withdrew, did not receive a passing score, or for any reason did not sit for the exam after applying or registering. List all non-exam applications for admission, including those based on years of practice, a reciprocity rule, the transfer of a UBE or MBE score, or diploma privilege. List if you have registered or pre-registered for licensure or examination in any jurisdiction, or applied for a limited or other type of law license separate from standard admission to the bar.

You must provide a copy of each application for admission or for any bar exam that included character and fitness questions. If you are admitted in other jurisdiction(s), you must provide additional documents from those jurisdiction(s) as specified in Rule 4D. For more information, see the Board's Application Submissions FAQs.
